Prophecy of 1960

Class Motto: "Tis the mind that makes the body rich."

Class Colors: Green and Silver.

Aloha! The year is 1970 and we are preparing for our grand reunion luau. As was expected, the Seniors of 1960 have come a long, long way.

Our out-of-state guests are arriving at the Alonzo Acosta International Air Field. A delegation consisting of Roberto Batres, Governor of Hawaii, Chila Caballero, all district hop-scotch champion and Jimmy Harrison, famous movie star now on location in Hawaii for his latest flicker "Love in Moonlight" have gathered to greet the newcomers. The huge Trans-Texas Hawaii Jet Airliner is being skillfully landed by Capt. Ed Kerr and his Co-Pilot, Tommy Ramirez. Down the ramp comes the glamorous socialite, Adela Chavez, followed by her millionaire husband, Roberto Morales. The others missed the plane due to a tornado in Texas, but will arrive soon by boat. With the music of the Fisher brother's steel guitars in the background, Carmen Lara and Herminia Padilla are gracefully passing the Leis.

Off we go in the Frank Castro Taxi Cabs to the Hotel Sunburn that is managed by Gustavo Espinosa. As our three cabs pull up to the Hotel's marquis, the elegantly dressed doorman, Joe Rodriguez, runs down to open the doors. Arthur Lehmann, the big tipper of the crowd, hands ten cents to each of the drivers, Carmen Mesa, Eva Roman and Carmen Morin. Ricardo Sifuentes and Gustavo Ruiz, the chief bell boys, rush to do their jobs.

The Hotel Sunburn is noted for the athletic program it maintains for the benefit of its guests. Head of this program is former Eagle quarterback, Jerry Turnbow.

Speaking of athletics, we wish to remind you that several "home town boys" are members of the Dirty Sox team. The manager is, of course, Victor Rodriguez, and his secretary is Rosa Landin. Pat Sanchez, Esteban Luna and Ernesto Saucedo are star players on the team. Rudy Bowles refused an offer to play because he claims he prefers to get his exercise running around the rim of the Kilawea Volcano Crater.

Down on the beach, the world's largest group of hula dancers managed by Ed Courtney is performing for our benefit. Sammy Ibarra and Mary Gomez are busy making leis for the dancers in case of accidents. "Wire" Rodriguez is skimming over the waves on his surf board and in a secluded inlet Ronny Cabe reclining in a hammock is directing his radio station. Fisherman Dick Adams is fishing off a reef with the famous Hawaiian throw net, while nearby Gravis Bibb, wearing a malo, is hunting wild pigs with a blowgun.

Out on the golf links we find that after years of hard work, Felix Cerna has reached the exalted position of Head Caddy. He is caddying today for Larry Greenberg, who is playing against Sam Sneed in the Hawaiian Open Golf Tournament.

Ah, we have just received word that Alejandra Lopez, Norma Perez, Paul Espinosa and Eulalio Gonzalez have just arrived at David Preston's Dude Ranch, specializing in Hawaiian music. His star entertainer is Sylvia Lehmann, dressed in a grass skirt, twirling her baton to the music of Mary Stockley and her Hawaiian guitar.

All isn't bright. While helping the world famous architect, Francisco Fuentes, build his grass huts, Fernando Ramos fell off the roof and was rushed to the Faith, Hope and Charity Hospital by the Joe Moncada-Francisco Esquivel Ambulance Service. Dr. Raul Montemayor and Nurse Kay Nelson—the famous surgical team—performed a complicated operation on Ramos's sprained arm. They were assisted by Maria Elena Rea and Angelica De Hoyos. Norma Torralba, cub reporter for the Hawaiian Daily Guide, rushes this sensational story to her editor, Victor Villarreal.

Marta and Chelena Moreno are rushing to finish the '70 census-taking from island to island in out-rigger canoes. First to be counted are Esperanza Montano, Maria Barrera, Trinidad Cadena and Yolanda Castaneda, as they are making grass skirts for all the tourists. From here they paddle out to another island consisting of plantations. Kay Hansen and Vernon Reaser are tending their famous Las Vegas Stables while across the volcano from here are the huge cattle ranches belonging to Billy Sturges and Duard Weathers. Daniel Trevino is just bringing in the last harvest on his banana plantation. On the way to their last stop they have picked up "Bloody Mary" Flores who is up for the weekend from BaliHai The last stop is the island Kaula, the bird paradise which is owned and operated by Lazaro Rodriguez. His able secretary is someone you all remember, Antonieta La-Grange.

As the census boat lands in Pearl Harbor it is twilight time, and they stop in at the Fisherman's Palace on the South Pier just in time to catch the floorshow starring Diana Garcia and Margarita Garza. Entering, we see the weirdest sight—George Garza is leading part of his army of converted sinners, Maria Romo, Villa Mae Shipman, and Alberto Olivares in singing the "George Bop." They are trying to convert everyone in sight. Further uptown, Luis Angel Rodriguez and Marilu Riojas are playing piano duets at the Bodega, much to the despair of the head poi chef, Alicia Gonzalez.

The Postmistress General of Hawaii, Kris Ovitz, has just burst into Joy Haynes' cold water flat, interrupting the latest comtemplation of zen, with the famous phrase, "Joy, I got a letter!"

Further uptown at the Coconut Grove, Josa Barrientos, the songbird, featured with Jorge Escobar and Becky Rodriguez and their Hawaiian Nine, is singing "Deep Purple."

In the center of Honolulu we find the small pineapple plantation belonging to Angelina Rodriguez and Manuel Roman. Joe Luis Diaz grades the pineapples by slinging them into the air and judging by whichever falls fartherest which is worst.

Dora Elia Torres has been flown over from Lower Slobovia by Blanca Loredo and Luz Ramon after having won the grand prize in the "Why I Like Snow" Contest. She brought with her as her two guests, Mary DeHoyos and Gracie Guedea.

Enrique Mata and Magdalena Rosales have just told me that while taking a ride on Bobby Rodriguez's Moonlight Sailing Concession, they heard Adelina Maldonado, President of the Hawaiian State Teachers Association, announce that Pilar Irueste has been unanimously chosen as Miss Hawaii.

At the opening of a new shopping center in Honolulu it is disclosed that the Rexall Drug Company under the management of Bobby Mack and the H. E. B. Food Stores under the management of Pancho Casales are planning to merge due to the discovery of the cure for the common cold by Fred Reyna, who works for the Rexall Company and Franchiso Risa, who works for H. E. B.

Beverly Cage told us yesterday that after much scrimping and saving, she had finally managed to get her ring paid for, but that Melissa Spence hadn't managed to get a ring yet, because she had been placing too many bets with Graciela Heredia, her bookie at the Gallopho Race Tracks.

As the sun sets over beautiful Hawaii, we find Edward Lerma and his wife, the former Miss Elia Martinez of Eagle Pass, under the trees sipping coconut milk at the Misplaced Tourist Bureau.

New Coaching Staff At E. P. H. S.

Eagles Boast Successful Season

Managers: Victor Rodriguez, Juan Garcia

The mighty Eagle Pass Eagles pounded out a very impressive season this year with a record of seven wins, two ties, and only one loss.

The Eagles, led by the brilliant quarterback, Jerry Turnbow, and the powerful ground attacks of fullback Manuel Rodriguez, completed their predistrict play-offs by defeating Crystal City 39-12 in an easy victory, downing Sidney Lanier 6-0, crashing Laredo 28-12, and defeating Giddings in a close game of 14-0. The ties that marred an Eagle near perfect record were a 12-12 deadlock with Carrizo Springs and a 14-14 tie with Pearsall.

Rudy Bowles, Manuel Rodriguez, Sammy Ibarra, and Hector Fisher made all-district this year. Jerry Turnbow, Armando Cerna, David Myers, and Daniel Trevino rated honorable mention all-district. Fullback Manuel Rodriguez was selected honorable mention all-state.

Varsity Squad

DISTRICT GAMES

The Eagles began 14-AAA play-offs with a victory of 12-8 against South San. They came back the next Friday to defeat Uvalde in a decisive battle of 16-12. The game with Del Rio the following week was won by the Eagles, who walloped the Wildcats 36-8. The Eagles wrapped up their season with their only defeat which decided the district championship, in a clash with the Sam Houston Cherokees. The heartbreaking score was 12-8.

Eagles Cop 2nd In District

EAGLES WIN FOURTEEN OF NINETEEN GAMES

The Eagle Pass basketball "A" team played 19 games this season. They won 14 games and lost five. The Eagles placed second in district, losing out to state finalist, South San Antonio.

The Eagles participated in three tournaments, placing sixth at South San Antonio, fifth at Del Rio, and winning consolation honors at Kerrville.

The Eagles were led by the shooting of Rudy Bowles and the rebounding of Armando Cerna. Since Coach Howell will lose only two starters from this year's team, next season should be a more successful one.

Eagle-ettes Runners-up In District

GIRLS PLACE SECOND IN DISTRICT

The Eagle-ettes played 18 games this season, including two tournaments, and made a total of 640 points with an average of 35.6 points per game.

Adelina Maldonado, forward, led the Eagle-ettes in scoring with a total of 230 points in 16 games, averaging 14⅜ points per game. Toni de la Garza, Rosa Roman, and Eva Gonzalez scored 166, 98, and 83 points, respectively.

Cecilia Caballero was the only Eagle-ette to rate all-tournament honors this year; however, four of the girls, Graciela Heredia, Cecilia Caballero, Adelina Maldonado and Toni de la Garza, placed on the all-district team.

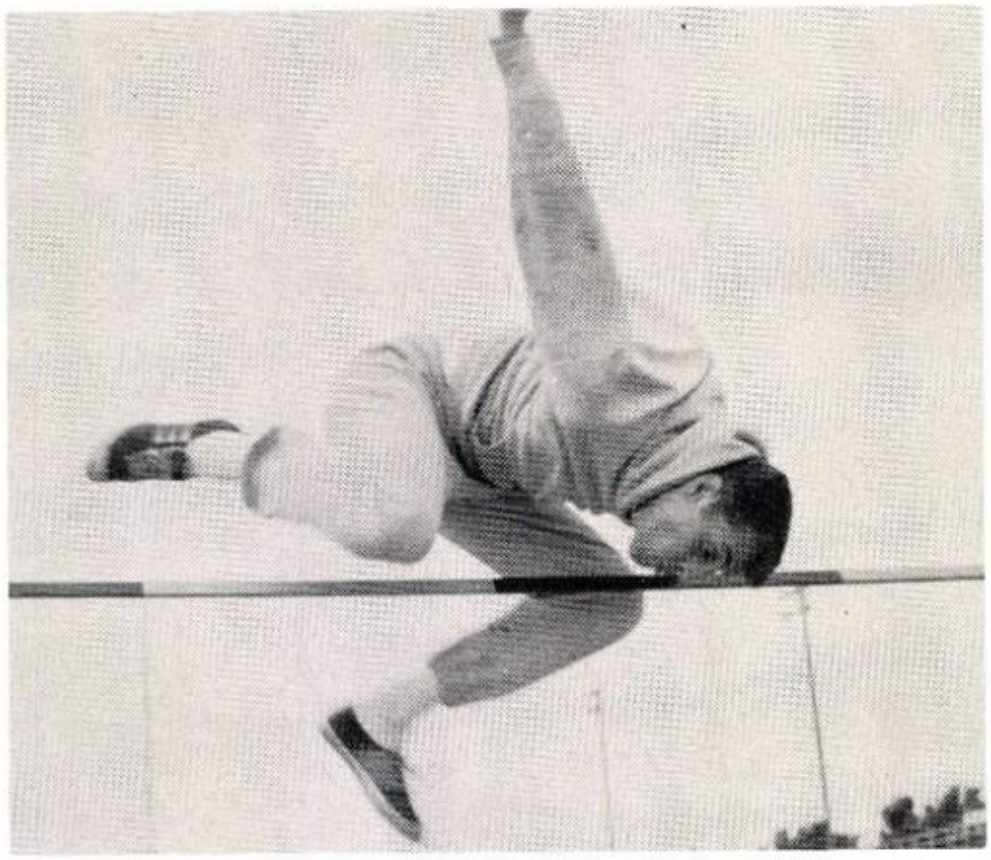
Track



Armando Cerna shows his superb form which won him first place in district and sent him soaring to the finals at the state meet.

Anastacio Guajardo places in State meet with a time of 4:39.

Track Team

The Eagle Pass track team had a very impressive season this year. Competition, however, was extreme; so the boys failed to go as far in Interscholastic League Track and Field events as they did last year.

Each boy on the team placed in district with some of the running times surpassing those of any other Eagle Pass previous track team. The 440 relay team broke the district record of 44.9, but failed to win the event. The same thing happened in the mile relay: our boys ran a time of 3:28 previous to the district meet; but again the competition was so rugged that they failed to place at the meet.

The Eagle cindermen participated in eleven meets this year, winning first place honors in the Seguin Relays, the Falfurrias Relays, and the Jaycee Relays. Second place was nabbed by the Eagles in the Brownsville Relays and the Interscholastic League District Meet, which was held in Eagle Pass.

Eagle Pass took fourth place at the regional meet in San Marcos two weeks following the district meet and then journeyed to the San Antonio Invitational Meet of Champions, at which the Eagles were represented by miler, Anastacio Guajardo, and high jumper, Armando Cerna.

Girls Win District

The girls softball team won district this year by walloping Uvalde 24-4. This was the only game necessary in winning the title. We think the other district teams were wise in their decision not to come because these young ladies are extremely hard to beat.

CONGRATULATIONS GIRLS!

Golf

Coached by Mr. Bill Perkins, the Eagle Pass golf team, composed of Felix Cerna, Larry Greenberg, Ronald Cabe, and Gravis Bibb, participated in four tournaments this year.

First on the agenda was the Border Olympics Golf Tournament held in Laredo. Cerna was the leading scorer with a 175 for thirty-six holes. In the Eagle Meet, held at Eagle Pass, Bibb was low man with an 84 on eighteen holes. In the Corpus Christi Tournament, Bibb was low man, again with an 80 (45-35) for eighteen holes. In the district tournament held at Eagle Pass, Greenberg won second medalist in a playoff with an 82 (45-37) for eighteen holes. Bibb fired an 84; Cerna, 86; and Cabe, 98 for a team total of 350. The Eagles captured 3rd place from a rugged field of five top-notch teams.

At San Marcos in the regional event, Greenberg fired a 45-39-42-39 for a thirty-six hole total of 165.

Tennis

The Eagle Pass tennis team participated in tournaments at Uvalde and Eagle Pass this year. In the Uvalde Tournament the doubles team, composed of Schmidt and Ramos advanced to the semifinals. In district competition the team was represented by Forns in singles and Schmidt and Ramos, in doubles. While Forns lost his first match, Schmidt and Ramos defeated teams from Uvalde and Del Rio only to lose to Sam Houston to take second place in district doubles competition.

Student Council

The Student Council had a very successful year. A big project of the 1959-1960 Student Council was the selection and crowning of the Homecoming Queen and Princesses. The Student Council worked very hard for the Halloween Carnival, whose profits were shared with D. E. C. A., F. F. A., and V. I. C. A huge crowd attended the carnival in spite of rainy weather. The Student Council also sponsored a formal Christmas Rainbow Ball, one of the most beautiful and enjoyable dances on record.

The Eagle Pass Student Council was host for the district Student Council meet held on March 17. The visiting representatives from Del Rio High School, Del Rio Junior High, San Felipe High School, Uvalde High School, Uvalde Junior High, and Eagle Pass Junior High complimented our group on its fine work.

The main campaign launched by the Student Council this year was the "School Spirit" campaign for boosting the enthusiasm of the students.

On April 21 the Modern Dance Group of Texas Woman's University, Denton, Texas, gave an excellent performance to an eager audience. This talented group was sponsored by the Student Council, whose members kept the performers in their homes.

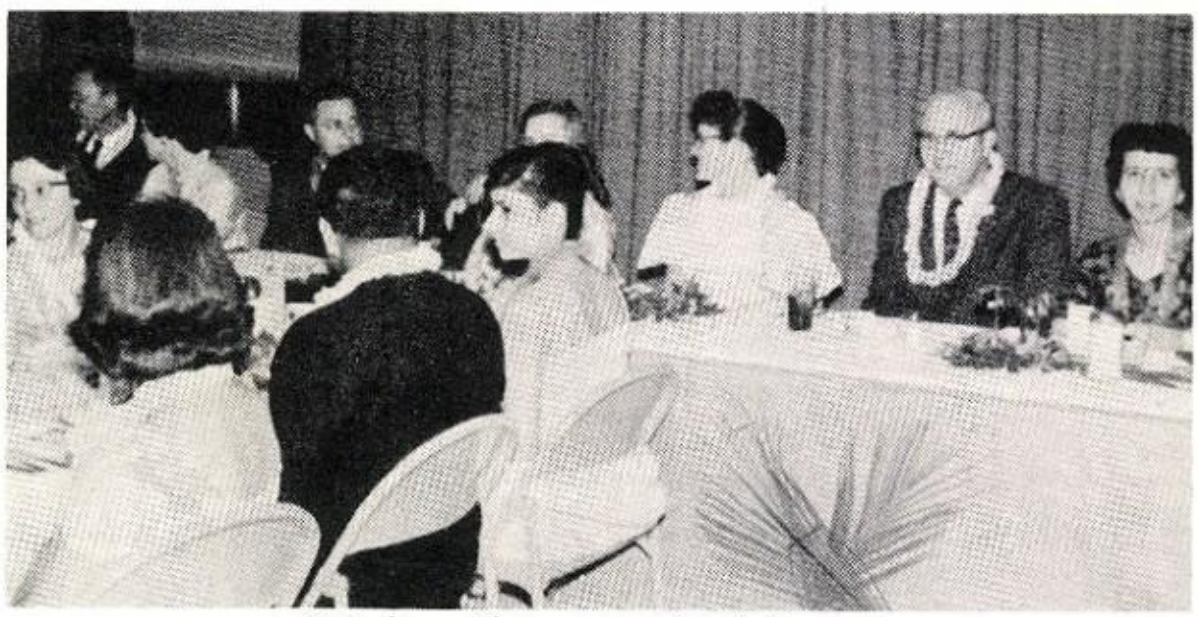
Banquet

Good Banquet, Eh???

Enjoying yourself, Susie?

Panchita reads predictions of things to come.



It looks as if everyone enjoyed the meal.

Kay listens with interest to the Sr. Will.

Surprised, Beto?

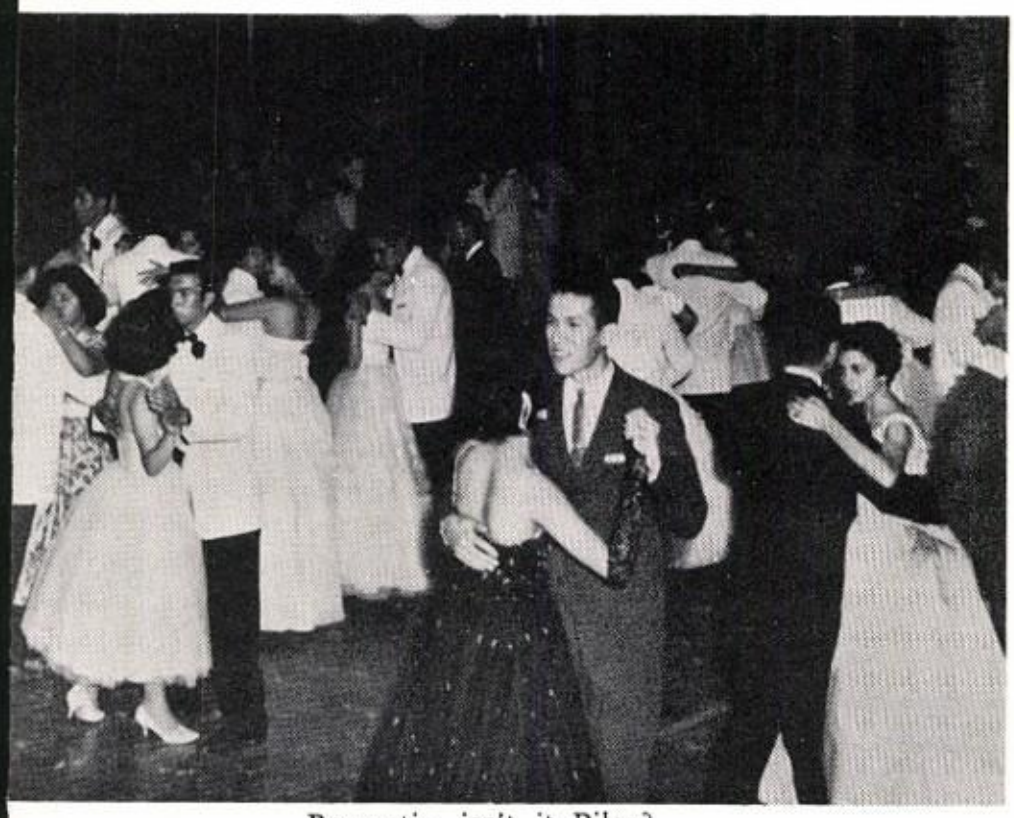
"Eh?" questioned Col. Galleghar.

Humberto Urbina reads the invocation.

Senior Prom

Everyone enjoyed himself at the Prom.

Wake up, Blanca.



Romantic, isn't it Pilar?

Happy, Mr. Garcia?

Everyone swayed to the music of the Valdez Brothers.

Even the teachers seemed to enjoy themselves.
